Work Plan

During the 2015 interim, the IPOC will:

(1) receive from the Public Employees Retirement Association (PERA), the Educational Retirement Board (ERB) and the Retiree Health Care Authority (RHCA) reports on each agency's maintenance of sustainability and solvency, as demonstrated by:

- ▶ actuarial valuation reports, including details of unfunded liabilities, other actuarial metrics and experience studies;
- ▶ funding policies; and
- ▶ plans for addressing any impediments to sustainability and solvency;

(2) receive from the State Investment Council (SIC), the PERA, the ERB, the RHCA and the Education Trust Board (ETB) reports on each agency's maintenance of transparency, as demonstrated by:

- ▶ policies and controls, including:
  - asset allocation policies and implementation of such policies;
  - investment committee policies;
  - financial reports, investment reports and, if applicable, actuarial reports; and
  - investment manager and consultant selection processes and required disclosures;
- ▶ investment management and consulting expenses, including base performance and incentive fees and costs, whether expensed or capitalized, on-budget or off-budget; custodial fees; investment transaction fees; commissions; and any other investment-related expenses; and

- ▶ audited financial statements and board and committee meeting minutes posted on each agency's web site;

(3) receive from the SIC, the PERA, the ERB, the RHCA and the ETB reports on each agency's value, as demonstrated by:

- ▶ economic impact; and
- ▶ comparison to peers;

(4) receive from the SIC, the PERA, the ERB, the RHCA and the ETB reports on each agency's strategic goals, as demonstrated by:

- ▶ plans and actions; and
- ▶ troubleshooting any impediments to meeting goals;

(5) receive reports from the PERA, the ERB, the Department of Finance and Administration, the state treasurer and the state auditor regarding the effects of Governmental Accounting Standards Board Statements 67 and 68 on municipalities;

(6) receive reports from the SIC regarding the progress of legal claims regarding alleged "pay-to-play" or alleged investment fraud allegedly committed by investment managers or consultants;

(7) receive reports from the PERA and the ERB regarding the disposition of legal claims regarding alleged breaches of contract or alleged breaches of fiduciary duty allegedly committed by investment managers or consultants;

(8) take testimony about the pros and cons of merging the SIC, the PERA, the ERB, the Office of the State Treasurer and the New Mexico Finance Authority into a single agency;

(9) receive reports on proposed legislation; and

(10) examine other issues related to the investment of public funds and the administration of pension benefits, as necessary.
